

We make shopping for Medicare insurance easier

When you're eligible for Medicare, you face a confusing array of choices

Medicare was never intended to cover all your medical expenses. With one phone call to Wells Fargo Insurance, we'll help you sort through the maze and help you find the right solution to fill Medicare's coverage gaps. Our dedicated benefits professionals will compare insurers, prices, and coverage to help you make the best decision while saving you time and money. Best of all, you pay nothing for this service and your rates are the same as buying directly from the insurance carrier.

You can count on us to:

- Take the time to understand your needs before making any recommendation. What doctors, hospitals and pharmacies are important to you? What level of coverage do you need? What is your budget?
- Search for your best value. We don't work for an insurance company, we are here for you. Because we have access to a wide variety of insurance providers, you can rely on us as a valuable assistant when choosing a Medicare insurance policy including Medicare Supplements, Medicare Advantage Plans, and Medicare Part D Plans. We'll help you find the coverage that meets your unique needs and we'll be there for you to assist with the policy.
- Help you make the optimal decision. We'll help you find the coverage that meets your unique needs. Not only will we help you select and purchase the policy, we'll help you manage your coverage now and in the future.
