College Profile

Provide a brief description of the school, including the year founded, public/private status, and campus size and location. Example: Wintergreen University, founded in 1900, is a public, comprehensive university. Its 200-acre campus is located in Boston.

Kenyon College, one of the nation's finest liberal arts colleges, is a close-knit community of talented students and outstanding teachers. Kenyon's reputation rests on a tradition of academic rigor and creative achievement, but its essence lies in the way personal contact shapes daily experience on its historic and scenic campus. Students know professors as teachers, advisers, collaborators, and friends, while professors know students as individuals--their strengths, aspirations, and potential for success.

N: Programs/Services for Learning Disabled Students (edit)

Please modify this section to represent the data for Fall 2008:

Information shown for Fall: 2008

According to the National Joint Committee on Learning Disabilities, learning disabilities is a "general term that refers to a heterogenous group of disorders manifested by significant difficulties in the acquisition and use of listening, speaking, reading, writing, reasoning, or mathematical abilities." A learning disability is presumably due to central nervous system dysfunction, and is not primarily due to other handicapping conditions, environmental, or cultural influences. It is not a form of mental retardation, or an emotional disorder.

AJ: Unique Qualities (edit)

Unique Qualities/Programs

Unique qualities and programs of the school that influence students with particular abilities and interests to choose it over similar schools:

Kenyon College, among the nation's finest liberal-arts institutions, takes pride in exceptionally strong programs in English (Kenyon is the home of the internationally known Kenyon Review), the sciences, and drama. Student-faculty interaction, both in and out of the classroom, and community involvement are hallmarks of the Kenyon experience. Kenyon students, who come from all 50 states and many countries, enjoy an active extracurricular life, with more than 135 student organizations. Kenyon teams compete in sports-11 each for men and women-and the swimming and diving teams are renowned for their record-breaking number of national championships. The Kenyon campus is noted for its beauty and the quality of its facilities, including a recently-built music building, $32-million science center and $70-million fitness, recreation, and athletic center.
