Section 4: What Students Pay

(Section 4 Instructions)

In this section, you will provide information on the financial aspects of attending your institution - both currently and over time. You may enter a detailed breakdown of tuition and fees, or just a description and explanation of your comprehensive fee. Clicking the "yes" button on any item will open details and data entry fields for the item. Note that if your entry for any numerical field is zero, please enter "0" rather than "N/A."

(Click on "Update" at bottom after editing.)

Please select how you would like to report your Price of Attendance Data.

We wish to itemize our price of attendance data

Estimated "other expenses" for a typical full-time undergraduate resident student for academic year 2011-12. "Other expenses" include the average costs for clothing, laundry, entertainment, medical (if not a required fee), and furnishings:

Estimated "transportation" expenses for a typical full-time undergraduate resident student for academic year 2011-12. For "Transportation" expenses assume two round trips to student's hometown per year for students in institutional housing:

Estimated "books and supplies" expenses for a typical full-time undergraduate resident student for academic year 2011-12. Use the average cost of books and supplies. Do not include unusual costs for special groups of students (e.g., engineering or art majors), unless they constitute the majority of students at your institution:

Estimated "room and board" charges for a typical full-time undergraduate resident student for academic year 2011-12. Assume double occupancy in institutional housing and 19 meals per week (or the maximum meal plan):

Estimated "tuition and fees" charges for a typical full-time undergraduate resident student for academic year 2011-12. This figure should represent typical tuition for a full-time undergraduate student for the full academic year (generally September to June) plus required fees or those charges that all full-time students must pay that are not included in tuition (for example, registration, health, or activity fees). Optional fees such as parking and laboratory use should not be included:

We wish to provide a narrative, describing our comprehensive fee. (You may also enter your comprehensive fee for past years in the "Tuition and Fees History" section below. If you do so, the following autotext will appear above the graph there: "This is a comprehensive fee. See "Price of Attendance" section, above, for more information.")

Who receive federal grants. These monies include Pell Grants and Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants made by the U.S. Department of Education as well as need-based and merit-based educational assistance funds and training vouchers from other federal agencies:

Who receive state/local grants. These monies include grants provided by the state to the institution through the LEAP program as well as state merit scholarships and tuition and fee waivers. Local grants are any local government grants, scholarship, or gift-aid awarded directly to the student:

Who receive institutional grants. These monies include scholarships and fellowships funded by the institution and/or individual departments. Also included are tuition and fee waivers and athletic scholarships from the institution:

Who receive student loans. These monies include subsidized and unsubsidized loans made directly to the student, including Perkins Loans. Also included are institutionally- and privately-sponsored loans for which the student is the designated borrower and funds go through the institution. PLUS and other loans for which the parent is the designated borrower are excluded:

Would you like to provide Student/Faculty Ratio Data? Yes No

Please provide the Fall 2011 student-to-faculty ratio (faculty will remain "1"). This ratio is full-time equivalent students (full-time plus 1/3 part-time) to full-time equivalent instructional faculty (full-time plus 1/3 part-time). In the ratio calculations, exclude both faculty and students in stand-alone graduate or professional programs such as medicine, law, veterinary, dentistry, social work, business, or public health in which faculty teach virtually only graduate level students. Do not count undergraduate or graduate student teaching assistants as faculty.
