

International Studies Major Development Track

Course Checklist

student:

Kenyon ID:

graduation year:

faculty advisor:

For each requirement, choose from the drop-down list of options or write in the requested information. If an unlisted item is approved by the director to fulfill a requirement, write it in the space provided, including if it was an OCS or ST course. Click on to the left of each requirement to indicate when it is completed.

Sophomore Course

Expansion of International Society (INST 201)

Introductory Courses

introductory course on microeconomics introductory course on macroeconomics introductory course on societies and cultures

Upper-Level Courses

course on international economics

two courses on challenges of development in a broader context, from two departments course on cultural aspects of recent global interactions and social changes

Research Methods Course

Area Concentration

Four courses that are focused on the study of a geographic or cultural region of the “developing” world. At least two of the courses must be historical in scope, including a course on the modern history of the region, and no more than two of the courses can be from off-campus study. Students are also encouraged to include a course that studies the region’s connections with other regions of the world.

course on the modern history of the region

another course on the history of the region

third course on the region

fourth course on the region

Foreign Language

foreign language requirement completed by

Off-Campus Study

Senior Seminar

Contemporary Global Issues (INST 401)