

International Studies Major Politics and Society Track

Course Checklist

student:

Kenyon ID:

graduation year:

faculty advisor:

For each requirement, choose from the drop-down list of options or write in the requested information. If an unlisted item is approved by the director to fulfill a requirement, write it in the space provided, including if it was an OCS or ST course. Click on to the left of each requirement to indicate when it is completed.

Sophomore Course

Expansion of International Society (INST 201)

Introductory Courses

introductory course on microeconomics introductory course on international politics introductory course on sociology course on global historical and cultural relations

Upper-Level Courses

three courses on global sociopolitical issues, from two departments

Research Methods Course

Area Concentration

Four courses that are focused on the study of a particular geographic or cultural region. At least two of the courses must be historical in scope, including a course on the modern history of the region, and no more than two of the courses can be from off-campus study. Students are also encouraged to include a course that studies the region's connections with other regions of the world.

course on the modern history of the region

another course on the history of the region

third course on the region

fourth course on the region

Foreign Language

foreign language requirement completed by

Off-Campus Study

Senior Seminar

Contemporary Global Issues (INST 401)