

lation of this policy will be subject to Kenyon disciplinary action. Individuals who are found to be responsible for hazing face sanctions up to and including suspension or dismissal from the College. Groups or organizations found to be responsible for violations of this policy face sanctions up to and including suspension, dismissal, or removal of their recognition by Kenyon. Individual officers of a group are subject to sanctions up to and including suspension or dismissal from the College for allowing such violations to occur.

Applicable state law.

1. Section 2903.31(A). As used in this section “hazing” means doing any act or coercing another, including the victim, to do any act of initiation into any student or other organization that causes or creates a substantial risk of causing mental or physical harm to any person.

2. Section 2307.44. Any person who is subjected to hazing, as defined in division (A) of section 2093.31 of the Revised Code, may commence a civil action for injury or damages, including mental and physical pain and suffering, that result from hazing. The action may be brought against any participants in the hazing, any organization whose local or national director, trustee, or officer authorized, requested, commanded or tolerated the hazing, and any local or national director, trustee, or officer of the organization who authorized, requested, commanded, or tolerated the hazing. If the hazing involves students in a primary, secondary, or post-secondary school, university or college, or other educational institution, an action may also be brought against any administrator, employee, or faculty member of the school, university, college, or other educational institution who knew or reasonably should have known of the hazing and who did not make reasonable attempts to prevent it and against the school, university, college, or other educational institution. The negligence or consent of the plaintiff or any assumption of the risk by the plaintiff is not a defense to an action brought pursuant to this section.

N. HONESTY

The quality of College life depends largely upon the personal integrity of students. Dishonesty in any form is an extremely serious offense, which may result in suspension or dismissal from the College. Instances of dishonesty include, but are not limited to, presenting/using another’s ID as your own, misrepresentation, furnishing false information, plagiarism, and falsification or forgery of documents. Questions of academic honesty are addressed by procedures established by the faculty (refer to the Course of Study).

O. HOUSING AND RESIDENTIAL LIFE

Housing matters at Kenyon College are handled by the Office of Housing and Residential Life. Areas of responsibility include: housing contracts, the housing lottery process, room changes, roommate concerns, facility issues and residential safety policies. For more information, please contact the Office of Housing and Residential Life at x5142 or e-mail reslife@kenyon.edu.

1. RESIDENTIAL REQUIREMENT

All students enrolled at Kenyon are required to live in College housing and enroll in the College dining plan. The only exceptions are for married students and those over the age of thirty. At the beginning of spring semester the Office of Housing and Residential Life will indicate whether students enrolled at the College will be granted permission to live off campus for the next academic year. In the event that some students will be permitted to live off campus, the Office of Housing and Residential Life will make available an application for students to complete to be considered for such approval. The assistant dean of students for housing and residential life will determine who will be permitted to live off campus. Students living off campus are still required to have a meal plan. Students found living off campus without permission from the assistant dean will be subject to disciplinary action.

2. RESIDENCE AGREEMENT

All students living in College housing are required to sign a Residence Agreement/Hous-
