

International Studies Major Environment Track

Course Checklist

student:
Kenyon ID:	graduation year:
faculty advisor:

For each requirement, choose from the drop-down list of options or write in the requested information. If an unlisted item is approved by the director to fulfill a requirement, write it in the space provided, including if it was an OCS or ST course. Click on to the left of each requirement to indicate when it is completed.

Sophomore Course

Expansion of International Society (INST 201)

Introductory Courses

introductory course on environmental studies introductory biology course introductory chemistry course introductory course on microeconomics introductory course on global social context

Upper-Level Courses

three courses on the challenges of human interactions with the environment environmental studies senior seminar

Research Methods Course

Area Concentration

Four courses that are focused on the study of a particular geographic or cultural region. At least two of the courses must be historical in scope, including a course on the modern history of the region, and no more than two of the courses can be from off-campus study. Students are also encouraged to include one course that explores the region's connections with other regions of the world.

course on the modern history of the region

another course on the history of the region

third course on the region

fourth course on the region

Foreign Language

foreign language requirement completed by

Off-Campus Study

Senior Seminar

Contemporary Global Issues (INST 401)